

Have you been unemployed and in receipt of benefits for at least 13 weeks?

JETS can help. Our Employment Advisors will support individuals for up to 6 months through one to one meetings, helping you to overcome barriers to employment and identify skills to expand your opportunities.

This service offers you:

- Access to a range of skills and accredited qualifications through local colleges and training providers
- Industry specific training and upskilling
- Personal development and employability skills
- Post Covid-19 employability skills
- Access to 200+ roles, sourced by our employment team especially for Shaw Trust customers

The JETS programme is voluntary and will never sanction your benefits

The Work and Health Programme

Are you unemployed with a health condition or disability or dealing with other difficult circumstances?

The Work and Health Programme is an employment support programme designed to help people with a health condition or disability (including mental health conditions) get back into work at their own pace. It also supports disadvantaged people such as care leavers, refugees and those who are homeless or at threat of homelessness.

This service offers you:

- A dedicated support manager supporting you for 15 months
- A bespoke health and wellbeing service
- Access to mental health and counselling services
- Support from trained professionals to help you overcome and manage barriers like physical health problems, mental health problems and wellbeing
- Help with housing, money or benefit problems
- If you do not have access to the technology needed to secure a job, the programme will help you access it
- Access to 200+ roles, sourced by our employment team especially for Shaw Trust customers
- Support and preparation before job interviews
- Employability support such as CV writing, interview skills and how to manage returning to work
- Introductions to work trials and placements
- 6 months of in work support after starting a new role.
